Proceedings of the County Convention.

PROBATE COURT ROOM, EXETER, N. H., }
May 24, 1894. }

At the call of the County Commissioners, the Rockingham County Delegation met in the Probate Court Room, Exeter, May 24, 1894, at twelve o'clock noon.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, A. S. Wetherell of Exeter.

William D. Cochran, chairman of County Commissioners, was called upon to explain why the Convention was called. He stated that the Convention was called to see what amount of money they will appropriate toward finishing and furnishing the new Court House in Exeter, also to see what amount of money the said Convention will appropriate to continue the new indexing of the Probate Records.

On motion of O'Keefe of Portsmouth, the Convention voted that the contracts for building new court house be read.

Commissioner Cochran commenced reading the contract for building new Court House. After receiving the information desired, on motion of O'Keefe, Convention voted to dispense with reading the entire contract.

Resolution introduced by Follansby of Exeter: Resolved, That the sum of twelve thousand dollars be appropriated to complete the erection and furnish the new Court House at Exeter, and for grading and curbing the grounds about said Court House and that the County Commissioners are hereby authorized to expend said sum for the purposes for which it is appropriated.

Moved by Guptill of Portsmouth, that the foregoing resolution be amended as follows:

That four hundred dollars be added to the twelve thousand dollars, said four hundred dollars to be appropriated and used to build a stable at Portsmouth near the jail. Motion was seconded by O'Keefe. Amendment was adopted by twenty-eight voting in the affirmative and none in the negative.

The resolution was then passed with the added amendment by a unanimous vote.

Resolution next introduced by Adams of Derry, as follows :

Resolved, That the sum of five hundred dollars be appropriated to purchase a bell and to place the same in the tower of the new Court House at Exeter, and that the County Commissioners are hereby authorized to expend the above sum for the purposes for which it is appropriated.

Resolution was voted on and passed.

Moved by Guptill, and seconded, that five hundred dollars be appropriated for the completion of the proper indexing of the Probate Records.

Unanimous vote to appropriate the five hundred dollars.

Delegation then voted to adjourn.

Commissioners' Report.

TO THE INHABITANTS OF THE COUNTY OF ROCKINGHAM:

In accordance with the requirements of the Public Statutes, we herewith present you with the report of your Commissioners, together with the reports of the Superintendent of the County Farm and House of Correction, Physician, Chaplain, Sheriff and Jailers, County Solicitor, Clerk of the Supreme Court, and County Treasurer, for the financial year ending December 31, 1894.

The County Farm for the past year has been under the continued charge of Mr. and Mrs. Melburn J. Dimond, the efficient superintendent and matron of last year. Mr. and Mrs. Dimond have well sustained the enviable reputation gained by them during their first year's administration of affairs at the Farm, and by their careful, considerate and courteous treatment of the various classes of inmates under their charge, have endeavored to make the condition of such inmates as comfortable as possible.

The main almshouse is not well suited to the accommodation of so large a number of inmates, not being of sufficient capacity and being constructed of wood, five stories in height, is owing to its open condition extremely difficult to heat in winter, with the result of more or less hardship to many of the inmates. Both the Superintendent and the Commissioners have endeavored to keep the building in as good repair as possible under the circumstances, yet we feel that owing to the ever increasing number of inmates and the limited capacity of the building, together with the extreme high cost of insurance upon it, and also by reason of it, upon the adjacent buildings, we believe it would be for the advantage of the county to remove it and construct in its place a new building of brick or other suitable material.

We would extend our thanks to all who have kindly furnished reading matter to the inmates at the County Farm during the past year, and earnestly hope that their kind efforts in that direction may be continued throughout the year to come. When all of the officials in their different capacities at the Farm have done so well, it may seem almost invidious to particularize any one person, yet owing to the particular position he occupies, we feel it would do no harm to mention briefly Rev. J. W. Higgins, the chaplain, who has been untiring in his efforts for the moral and spiritual welfare of the inmates, and who has ever been ready with both counsel and example, to point all to a true and right line of action, which we believe will insure the best results in life here and hereafter.

Early in the year the attention of the Commissioners was called by the attending physicians, Drs. Mitchell and Sweeny, to the dangerous condition of the water supply at the Farm, the water being taken from the small pond in the rear of the Almshouse, and used for cooking and washing purposes, and in many instances for drinking. A well some eight rods westerly from the Almshouse, also furnished a part of the supply of the drinking water. In accordance with the recommendations of the physicians, samples of water from both pond and well were sent to the state chemist, Prof. Angell of Derry, for analysis, who, after a careful and searching analysis, returned a written report, stating that the water from both sources of supply was of a dangerous character and unfit for domestic use.

Acting in accordance with the advice of the physicians, the Commissioners referred the matter to Dr. Irving A. Watson, Secretary of the State Board of Health, who visited the Farm and carefully investigated the whole matter, and submitted to the Commissioners an exhaustive report thereon, and strongly advised the sinking of an artesian well, as the only possible chance of obtaining a supply of pure and wholesome water. Considering the high authority of the recommendations, together with the statement of the county physicians that a large percentage of sickness, especially in the summer months, among the inmates, was directly traceable to the impure water they were compelled to use, the commissioners decided to sink an artesian well, being assured that in no other practicable way could the desired supply of water be obtained.

Accordingly contracts were made with Smith & Winchester of Boston, Mass., to sink the well and furnish a suitable steam pump to lift the water.

The well was sunk to the depth of two hundred and forty-one feet and an abundant supply of pure water at a temperature of 50 degrees Fahrenheit was struck, and the result has more than realized the expectations of the Commissioners.

The whole cost of well, pump and house for same, was approximately $2,300 ; exact figures appear elsewhere in this report. We append Dr. Watson's report upon the matter.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH, Secretary's Office, }
CONCORD, N. H., June 8, 1894. }

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS,
Rockingham County, N. H.

Gentlemen.—Certain facts having been presented to the State Board of Health relative to the prevalence of diarrhoeal and typhoidal conditions among the inmates of the Rockingham County Almshouse, and the conclusion having been arrived at that the said conditions are dependent upon a contaminated water supply, it becomes our duty to render a report to your board, with recommendations.

Recognizing, yourselves, that something should be done to remove the cause of so much illness, your board invited the Secretary of the State Board of Health to inspect the premises, which he did on June 7. There were present at the time of the inspection the full board of County Commissioners, the Superintendent of the Alms-house, Drs. Henry L. Sweeny and Abram W. Mitchell, physicians to the institution, an engineer and others. A thorough examination of the premises was made and a general consultation held.

By request the physicians named have made brief statements, copies of which are herewith given :

To I. A. WATSON, M. D.

Secretary State Board of Health :

Agreeably to your request, I submit the following report in regard to the sanitary condition at the Rockingham County Farm. On May 10, 1893, I entered upon my duties as physician to the inmates of the Rockingham County Almshouse, Asylum and House of Correction. In July of that year there was a severe outbreak of diarrhoea, which spread rapidly among the inmates, proving rather intractable in some cases, but resulting fatally in only two, both old and much debilitated persons. At once the physicians began their search for the cause of the outbreak. The plumbing, closets and drains about the buildings seemed to be in a satisfactory condition, and chloride of lime was being freely used in the closets and drains and the whole system thoroughly flushed twice daily. At the outlet of the sewer a defect was found, but was at once remedied when the attention of the Superintendent was called to it. By the order of the physician, the well was pumped out as thoroughly as possible, soups were dropped from the list and the diet of the inmates generally revised and restricted. They were also warned and forbidden from using the water from the pond for drinking.

Despite our efforts, the diarrhoea continued throughout the summer months and only entirely disappeared with the advent of cold weather. In the fall we had several cases which developed typhoidal symptoms and two at least of typhoid fever of a mild type. This year we are beginning to experience the same trouble a month earlier than last, several cases of diarrhoea having appeared within the last week.

The water supply of the place has been examined, samples analyzed and the results, as well known to you, show pollution to such an extent as to necessitate absolutely a new source of supply, as the water from the purest source can only be used with great risk and danger. The only available source, it seems to me, which gives promise of a permanent supply free from danger, is by sinking an artesian well deep enough to exclude entirely the surface water, and this measure I am in favor of, have recommended and do recommend to the Commissioners of Rockingham County.

(Signed) HENRY L. SWEENEY, M. D.

Kingston, June 7, 1894.

EPPING, N. H., June, 1894.

To DR. IRVING A. WATSON,

Secretary State Board of Health, Concord, N. H.

Dear Sir.—In the interest and behalf of the numerous unfortunate people confined or supported at the county institution at Brentwood, I would respectfully call your attention to the quality of the drinking water supplied to them. The analyses of all four possible sources—the pond, the new filter tank, the well, and the spring, half a mile distant, are before you, and I feel sure that you will condemn these sources, as have we, long ago, who have had to care for the very large number of patients made ill by the use of these waters. During the first three of the six years that I have been professionally connected with the farm, I can distinctly remember and state that no case of typhoid fever or diarrhoea resembling it originated on the place. In the fourth year the cases of diarrhoea had, in a few cases, a tendency toward typhoid that was suggestive. During the fifth year the tendency was more decided and manifest, while in the sixth, or last season, the epidemic of bowel troubles was terrible. Superintendent Dimond very willingly and kindly changed the regular diet, excluding soups, etc., and doing everything the physicians suggested. The Commissioners furnished all the drugs asked for, and we used them to the best of our ability; but, notwithstanding all this, the diarrhoea continued, grew worse, and several cases of unmistakable typhoid fever presented.

In view of the unfavorable analysis, our former experience and the fact that several cases of diarrhoea have already made their appearance, dreading for the helpless and dependent inmates, for ourselves and for the conscience and good reputation of the county the dangers impending, I earnestly entreat you to give this matter early attention and to aid us in furnishing a pure water supply.

(Signed)      ABRAM W. MITCHELL.

It appears that for several years past the chief source of water supply has been from a brook which runs through the farm and within a few rods of the buildings. In order to create a reservoir of sufficient capacity, a dam was constructed which causes the water to flow quite an area of marshy or muddy land. From this brook water is pumped into a tank of 10,000 gallons capacity, and thence distributed by pipes throughout the institution.

Suspecting the water from the brook to be unfit for domestic use, Superintendent M. J. Dimond sent a sample of it to Prof. E. R. Angell for analysis, and received the following report :

This water is not suitable for drinking purposes. It contains too much vegetable matter in solution.

(Signed) EDMUND R. ANGELL.

Derry, N. H., May 23, 1894.

Recognizing the necessity for a better water supply, the Commissioners caused a cistern to be constructed within a few feet of the pond, expecting that the water would filter through the intervening soil and fill the cistern with good water. Instead of this result, the soil water from the higher ground, including the site of the almshouse and other buildings, leached into the cistern, filling it a foot or more higher than the level of the pond. Thus the attempt to obtain pure water by means of filtration from the pond into a cistern, resulted in procuring a supply of ground water of doubtful quality. An analysis of this water was made May 23, with the following result :

This water is questionable. I would not drink it myself. I underline the objectionable results in the analysis. It is to be understood that the substances so marked are in excess, or are objectionable from their presence. (Signed) EDMUND R. ANGELL.

Derry, N. H., May 23, 1894.

Recourse has been had, more or less, to a well upon the premises for drinking water, situated some seventy-five or a hundred feet from the site of some old surface privies, which for some years polluted the soil to an excessive degree. Fearing that the water might also be contaminated, Mr. Dimond caused an analysis to be made of a sample taken from the well in May, with the following result :

The unfavorable features are : Too much loss on ignition ; too much ammonia, both free and albuminoid ; excess of chlorine. The natural amount of chlorine should not exceed one-half grain per gallon ; excess of nitric acid, and presence of nitrous acid. These results show that this water contains drainage of some kind. It is very suspicious water. (Signed) EDMUND R. ANGELL.

Derry, N. H., May 28, 1894.

There is upon the farm, in the lowest part of a large field 2,300 feet distant, a spring from which it has been proposed to take the water for domestic use. A topographical examination of the spring indicates that a large proportion of its water is surface drainage only, as the natural drainage of the land is toward this spring, while one or two lines of subsoil drainage tile have been laid in a manner tending to take the drainage toward the spring. An analysis of the water in this spring was recently made by Prof. Angell, with the following result :

This water is not suitable for drinking purposes.

(Signed) EDMUND R. ANGELL.

Derry, N. H., May 23, 1894.

Briefly, the situation regarding the water supply of your county almshouse, asylum, etc., seems to be as follows :

1st. The pond made by a dam in the brook, from which the greater part of the supply for the institution has been taken for the past few years, is of too poor a quality and of too suspicious a character to be used with safety. This supply receives the drainage of several brick yards and is liable with every shower to serious contamination.

2d. The cistern water is from the soil drainage of quite an area, probably embracing the entire site of the almshouse, asylum and adjacent grounds, and therefore its use should be discontinued.

3d. The well, as has already been shown, is contaminated to an extent that renders the water unfit for domestic use. This contamination is doubtless due to long continued soil pollution in years past, and it is not probable that the soil will be freed from dangerous organic impurities for many years to come. Therefore the well should be permanently closed.

The question which presents itself to your board is: How shall an adequate water supply be obtained for this institution? It has been conclusively shown that neither of the sources from which water has been or is now being taken should be continued, and it therefore becomes the duty of your board to furnish a new supply at the earliest possible moment.

The diarrhoeal and typhoidal conditions which have prevailed at the institution, baffling the skill of your physicians, together with the analyses above given, would seem to establish beyond reasonable doubt that the cause is to be found in the water used at the almshouse. I think these points have been so definitely settled that they need no further discussion. The problem of obtaining a new supply is the vital question with which you have to deal.

The only available water in sight, within a reasonable distance, is the spring above mentioned, and the water from this source has been shown by analysis to be unfit for domestic purposes, in addition to the fact that it does not, in all probability, contain a sufficient supply for the institution.

There appears, therefore, to be but one readily available source for a water supply of a satisfactory quality and sufficient quantity, to wit, an artesian well. Judging from the geological formation of the locality, with strata of clay and rock formation and intervening beds of quick sand, we should expect to obtain, within a reasonable depth, by means of an artesian well, a water supply that would be adequate in all respects for the institution.

We therefore recommend that you take immediate measures to carry out the suggestions embodied in this report.

Respectfully submitted,

IRVING A. WATSON, Secretary.

We desire to call the attention of the Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor in the several towns of the County to Chapter 27, Section 11, and to Chapter 85, Sections 1, 2, 4, 5, 11, and 14 of the Public Statutes, and inform you that no bills will be paid for more than thirty days' support, previous to the proper affidavits being furnished us according to the requirements of these statutes. The evidence as to the settlement must show the name, age, place of former and present residence of the applicant since 1880, the amount of property owned by and taxed to them since January 1, 1880; whether married or single; if married, when and to whom; and if under thirty years of age, the names and place of residence of parents, the amount of property owned and taxed to either of them. If they have received any aid, where and by whom, and where they have lived since 1880, and any other material facts bearing upon the matter. Proper blanks for all the above will be furnished you upon application to the County Commissioners.

We urge upon the Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor throughout the county, the necessity of exercising great care and economy in the management of the county poor supported in the several towns, and to carefully investigate all new applications for aid, and be sure that all such are deserving and legally entitled to such aid, and in every case when aid is furnished, to be sure that each pauper gets a dollar's worth of goods for every dollar paid. In short we desire you to do business for the county on business principles and with the same care and economy with which you do business for your several towns.

Auditors' Report.

EXETER, January 14, 1895.

We, the auditors of the County of Rockingham, have carefully examined the accounts of the County Commissioners, for said county, and find them properly cast and with proper vouchers for all expenditures. From the best evidence by us obtained, we are satisfied that the articles procured by the Commissioners for the use of the county have been purchased at a fair market value, and have not been diverted from their legitimate use.

Physicians' Report.

TO THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF ROCKINGHAM COUNTY:

Gentlemen.—We submit the following annual report for the year ending December 31, 1894. The general health of the inmates of the House of Correction, Almshouse and Asylum for the Insane has been good, although, as must be expected, there have been at all times some who were in need of our services.

In our opinion the outbreaks of diarrhoea which have been so marked during the last two or three years were due to a large extent to the contaminated water supply. During the past year there has not been as much of this sickness, and now that the artesian well is finished and the whole supply furnished from this source there can be no further danger from contaminated water.

There was one case of scarletina last spring, but prompt isolation prevented its spread. This fall there have been several cases of erysipelatous inflammation, none fatal, and with these exceptions no contagious or epidemic diseases have appeared throughout the year.

The sanitary and hygienic conditions are good, and the food supplied the inmates of excellent quality, and abundant in quantity. Appended is the list of deaths for the year, twenty-two in number, one, a child of one year. Of the remaining twenty-one, the youngest was 43 years of age, the average age of the whole being 72 1-2 years, while fifteen of the twenty-one had reached the limit of three score and ten years. Several of those died within a month of their entrance, their disease being far advanced before they were brought here.

We extend our thanks to the Superintendent and Matron for their courteous treatment and willing assistance to us in the discharge of our duties. Our relations with all connected with the care of the institution and its inmates have been only pleasant.

HENRY L. SWEENEY, M. D.
ABRAM W. MITCHELL, M. D.

June 7.—Charles E. Lehman.
June 27.—Edward E. Kreger.

Chaplain's Report.

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF ROCKINGHAM COUNTY :

Gentlemen.—The following is my report as chaplain of the County Farm, for the past year. Our meetings during the year have been of an interesting character. The spirit of the Lord has been with us, and a number of the inmates take part in each meeting. Some who have died during the year had accepted Christ, and we believe they are at rest. The meetings for the most of the year have been well attended, the inmates coming of their own free will and accord. And there seems to be more than ordinary interest at the present time, and we are expecting conversions the coming year.

I wish to speak very highly of Mr. and Mrs. Dimond (Superintendent and Matron), for their valuable assistance rendered me in my work. They are ever ready to help in every way possible. The singing led by the Superintendent and others has been good. We also feel grateful to the friends outside who have sent us religious papers to distribute among the inmates, which were thankfully received. We hope the coming year, through the blessing of God, to lead souls to Jesus the Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. HIGGINS, Chaplain.

Brentwood, January 1st, 1895.

Cases where sentence has been suspended relate mostly to liquor law violations. This course has been pursued on an agreement being entered into by respondents to quit the business, with the understanding that sentence would be imposed if agreement were violated.

Aside from the above cases, prosecutions have been carried on before justices and police courts for violations of the liquor laws, and much has been accomplished in this way.

There appears to be a tendency on the part of many people to throw blame on the solicitor for not more thoroughly enforcing legislation regulating the sale of spirituous liquor. So long as I have held this office I have never hesitated to institute prosecutions in all cases where proper complaint has been made, and where indictments have been found to press them to trial. A general complaint made through the mails is not such a complaint as the law requires.

The law makes it especially encumbent upon selectmen of towns, at the expense of the town, to prosecute all violations of law relating to the illegal sale of spirituous and intoxicating liquor in the several towns, of which they can obtain reasonable proof, and the towns are entitled to one-half of the fines collected through such prosecutions.

Under the law, the selectmen can, and usually do, act as complainants, but the law makes it the duty of the solicitor to institute prosecutions only in cases where a person of good character shall make the necessary complaint under oath, and without which a solicitor is powerless to act. This does not mean an indefinite allegation of belief or knowledge, sworn to, but an allegation in legal form addressed to a justice upon which a warrant can be issued.

LOUIS G. HOYT,

County Solicitor.
